STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

In the Travancore area, there is in force the Travancore Nurses, Midwives and Dhais Act, 1121. But there is no such law in forca in the Cochin area. Government have decided to enact a law on the subject which will apply to the whole State and steps are being taken in that direction.

According to Section 8 (1) of the Act, the term of the first Council is five years commencing from the date on which the first meeting of the Council is held. The first meeting having been held on 3rd March 1947, the term was due to expire on 3rd March 1952. Government did not proceed to conduct elections and to constitute the second Council because they hoped to be able to enact the proposed law and to constitute the Council which will have jurisdiction throughout the State before the expiration of the term of the first Council. But this had not been possible so far and it became necessary to extend the term of the first Council for a period not exceeding one year and for that purpose to amend the Act suitably. The Travancore Nurses, Midwives and Dhais (Amendment) Ordinance was accordingly promulgated by His Highness the Raj Pramukh and the term of the Council was extended for a period of one year. The present Bill is intended to replace the Ordinance by an Act of the Legislature.
